

eyeShout.net: Search by color...

di Paolo Franzese

eyeShout.net is not just a gallery of quality designed websites including Flash and CSS based designs. But also a complete archive of awesome websites tagged by keywords and searchable by colors!

That's right, didn't you ever get frustrated while trying to get inspiration on a pink website! Well no longer will you search endlessly in the void of the web for inspiration. Just tap in the colors you want to base your search on and view some excellent websites.
