

web designer daily, imaginepaolo c'è!

di Paolo Franzese

The screenshot shows the homepage of webdesignerdaily.com. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for Inspiration, Submit, Archives, News, Contact, and PDF. Below the navigation, a tweet from "WebDesignerDaily" on Twitter is displayed: "Time for some to come! Here's a new pair of socks! — 10 days ago". The main content area features a grid of nine web design examples. From left to right, the first row includes: "Up Themes" by Thomas Weller, "The Ship and the Sea" by David Lister, and "Web Design Zone" by David Lister. The second row includes: "Ellen Weather" by Ellen Weather, "Design Influence" by David & Anna Typographic, and "The Walk" by David Lister. The third row includes: "300ml" by 300ml and a blue rectangular placeholder image. On the right side of the page, there's a sidebar with the text "Veiling Acties.nl" and "Bieden vanaf €1,-". The URL "imaginepaolo.it" is visible in the center of the page.
